GANG CAUGHT IN ROBBERY OF TIRE SHOP FATALLY WOUNDS CONSTABLE; MAN HUNT IS ON

Robert Norman, Deputy City Marshal of Burbank, was slain and Township ble Henry E. Purrier was shot three times in the chest and probably fatally ded by burglars whom the officers caught in the act of robbing the U. L. and tire shop at Burbank early this morning. One of the burglars was aded during an exchange of shots with Constable Purrier. The burthree Italians, fled in the direction of Los Angeles and are being ed by deputy sheriffs and Los Angeles policemen.

Marshal Norman and Constable Purrier were watching the place on the chance of a return visit by the robbers. They saw the three Italians drive up in a seven-passenger Studebaker touring car and start to break into the store. The officers drew their revolvers and apparently took the three men into custody. But they evidently overlooked searching them for weapons.

Norman jumped onto the running board of the Studebaker and told the driver to head toward the City Jail. He handcuffed one of the men. Purrier followed the robbers in his own machine. Those familiar with conditions on the West Coast said they did not believe the Federals could have embarked 3000 soldiers at Mansanillo or any other Mexican West Coast port, as reported, for transportation to Ensenada, principal port of Lower California.

Until recently at least the only vessels available for carrying troops and munitions in that zone have been the power yacht Tacate, on patrol work among fishermen; the small coasting steamer Bonitz, owned by the Compania Naviera Del Pacifico, and the old gunboat Guerrero. Democratic leaders, Mr. White said, are seeking to have the Sentant committee investigating campaign expenses continue its operations. He added that it was particularly desired to bring to light the contributions to Republican campaigns, but thus far a way to accomplish this had not been found.

Before leaving Washington the national chairman expects to confer with Atty.-Gen. Palmer, who was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency and probably will seek his aid in the speaky ing campaign.

Direction of the national campaign will center in New York. Mr. White will go to the headquariers there at the end of this week and will arrange immediately to put the campaign machinery into operation.

Cardinal Gibbons Alarmed

Considers It Cancer Eating

Strongly Favors Uniform Laws

BALTIMORE, July 29 .- An in crease of nearly 50 per cent in the number of divorces in Maryland during the past year has brought of a vigorous protest against diverce by Cardinal Gibbons, prinate of the American Hierarchy.

American Hierarchy.

The venerable prelate is deeply impressed and more alarmed over the rapid growth of marital unhappiness than any other one tendency in the American social system.

"I consider divorce the greatest social and domestic danger of the present day," he said. "It is a cancer eating into the moral vitals of the country and world."

TWO REMEDIES. TWO REMEDIES.

TWO REMEDIES.

Asked what he considers the remedy, the Cardinal said there are two—the religious one through inculcating a realization of the duty of keeping the home together and undefiled, and a legal method through the Jones bill, recently proposed to Congress. This legislation favors a constitutional amendment empowering Congress to make uniform divorce laws for all States.

"That bill meets with my approval because it does away with some of the evil," said the Cardinal. "After its passage, however, much more would remain to be done." He said. He added that he has been alarmed at the growth of divorces in Egitimore, as described in the newspapers.

Turning to the religious and social aspects of divorces, he continued:

"I want to recall the substance."

tinued:
"I want to recall the substance of a report made a few days ago by the secretary of the International Diverce Reform Association. According to the figures revealed, the United States now exceeds Japan in the frequency of divorce. In pagan Japan there are 109 divorces annually for every 100,000 persons, while in our own Christian country divorces have increased to more than 112.

Senator Walsh arrived unexpectedly today and was Gov. Cox's guest at dinner before leaving for the East.

"Senator Walsh said he had not learned Gov. Cox's attitude toward the League controversy. He called to talk over ordinary campaign affairs, he said, with D. J. Mahoney, Gov. Cox's son-in-law, and the Governor had insisted upon tonight's visit to Trailsend. Even should he and the Governor differ on the League, Senator Walsh said he still would support the Governor enthusiastically. He was the most progressive and liberal candidate in the field at San Francisco, Mr. Walsh added.

He was the only visitor at Trailsend today. Gov. Cox finished the rough draft of his acceptance address and prepared to be the guest of honor temorrow at the "homecoming" and non-political celebration planned by the Governor's friends,

To a query as to whether he approved the statements of President Wilson and Gov. Cox, after their White House conference: Senator Walsh declined to answer. He declared that he still favored League covenant reservations, and would never vote for the League without reservation to Article X.

The Republicans, he predicted, would seek to make reservation to Article X, their principal fight, and he said Gov. Cox should be "very careful" what position he took.

That Irish questions would not be campaign issues, he predicted.

Gov. Cox today directed that invitations be sent to all candidates at San Francisco for the ceremonies August 7. Word was received that Secretary of Agriculture Meredith and Senator Reed of Missouri were planning to attend.

In Nebraska the usual pay for harvest hands this year is from 50 cents to 60 cents an hour. as against 70 cents in Kansas. The men have been working eight or ten hours a day, usually the latter, and officials at the State House, who are in close touch, say that in Nebraska less of the tendency to chop the working day down to the point where labor cannot carry the peak load has appeared than in some other States.

The high price of labor and of commodities is what one hears most about in talking with the farmers. So far on the trail across five States not a single farmer has been encountered who has falled to deny that wheat acreage was reduced this year by labor shortage.

Where it was cut they invariably say it was due either to atmospheric conditions, which killed the planting, or to the fact that the farmers put in more corn and less wheat.

At Fairmont today farmers on the streets said the high cost of labor would cause many of them to switch next year from wheat to corn, which required less emergency period labor.

Not since 1907, when the Americans secured the passage of a flag law as a result of lack of respect to the American flag shown by the Filipinos, has there been such a unanimous feeling aroused against Americans. Likewise Philippine political leaders have not in years been so unitedly opposing any government action as now. Both forces are drawn up prepared for a bitter fight.

They view the possibility of a change in administration with certain alarm for fear a new government in Washington might be less liberal towards the dream of inment in washington hight to liberal towards the dream of independence.

Business men, determined that the United States grant no further independence at present, are taking an opportunity to take a hearty swing against Philippine leaders.

International interest is taken in the family squabble as shown by the secret encouragement given the Filipinos by British and Japaness business interests here.

The law provides that all shipping between America and the islands must be carried in American bottoms. The British and Japanese interests long have controlled this trade and naturally are against the law. Recently Shipping Board boats entered into competition and in order to discourage the Americans the foreigners lowered the rates.

AIDED BY OUTSIDERS.

It is impossible to tell how much these British and Japanese business and shipping interests are aiding the Philippine leaders, but these foreigners first gave publicity against the law, and their influence started action against the Americans. President Queson of the Senate and other leaders affirm these influences had nothing to do with their action against the bill which they claim is based on an usurpation by the United States Congress of rights that belong to the Philippines, since the law is a straight case of taxation without representation.

Immigration Commissioner Henry M. White submitted figures showing there have been 361 descritions of Japanese seamen from vessels landing at Seattle since January 1 this year while during 1919 the number of descritions was 161. Benjamin Wise, who formerly owned a fruit stand adjoining a Japanese place of business, testified that soon after he bought the stand he was approached with an offer of $5000 to sell out to his Japanese neighbor.

When he refused he was told that the Japanese merchant would spend $10,000 to drive him out. Wise testified he sold out this morning for $2700 after an ineffectual effort to meet Japanese competition. He said his Japanese neighbor cut prices of fruit and vegetables below the wholesale cost that he, Wise, had to pay. He said whereas he paid from $42 to $45 a week in wages to the five persons he employed, his Japanese competitor hired a man and his wife for $100 a month.

The Rev. U. G. Murphy, a missionary who testified at length before the committee during its hearings in Washington, D. C., said that as a part of his work he discoarased the Japanese from overcrowding sections in his territory. He cited a Japanese colony at Thomas, in this county, where he said there was thirty-three school children five years ago and now were 105 and the ratio of Japanese to the whites continued all the time to be equal. "I have tried to keep them half and half there as I do everywhere." Dr. Murphy said, and Chairman Johnson of the House committee immediately demanded to know whether or not Murphy was coloning the Japanese or telling them where to send their children. Murphy said he frequently advised with Japanese leaders and recommended to tem that they do not attempt to outnumber whites or control any section of country into which they move.

scials said, of the sait water from San Francisco Bay backing up into the inadequate fresh supply in the Sacramento River.

Antioch was forced to quit the river water entirely for its home and industrial consumption and begin carting a supply from a ranch three miles from town. This source will give each family from twenty to thirty gallons a day, according to its size. There are 2500 people in the town.

The city of Benicia, opposite here, has been compelled to bring the greater part of its supply in on barges from a point in the river above Antioch.

The slortage has a bearing on the suit brought by the city of Antioch to restrict the use of the river water by the rice growers of the upper Sacramento River, it being held that such use virtually cuts off the city's supply.

Limited that a man he suspects was Eugene Leroy, the trunk murderer, boarded the train last sunday on the outskirts of Chicago and jumped from the Pullmann car in the desert twelve miles from Reno when he was questioned concerning the murder.

Brutch said that the man answered to Leroy's description except that his mustache had been roughly shaven. His nervous actions an numblings and agitated actions caused Brutch to question him casually concerning the murder, whereupon, Brutch says, he turned pale and jumped from the train in the middle of the desert.

NEW TWIST TO CASE.

INT A P. DAT WIRE.

NEW YORK, July 29.—A new twist was given today to Detroit's mysterious trunk murder. The police announced they had discovered a marked similarity between the handwriting of E. Leroy, sought in connection with the murder of his wife, whose body was found here fammed in a trunk shipped from Detroit, and that of the mysterious "P. P. Poulverer," who disappeared after the slaying here last August of Cecil E. Landon, an Oregon soldier.

Reverse Story of Enoch Arden in Real Life.

KANSAS CITY, July 29 .- The hu nan version of Enoch Arden, where in mortal frailties vary the Idyll of Tennyson of sixty years ago, was written into the records of Judge Tennyson of sixty years ago, was written into the records of Judgs Clarence A. Burney's court today. Eugene E. Peel, in the role of Philip Ray, in asking for and receiving a divorce, gave his story of the classic wherein the returning mariner did not relinquish Annie Lee and steal silently away into the night. Back in 1914, according to Peel, he and Henry Curtis courted Esther Warren in Carthage, Mo. Curtis, more debonnair and roving won in the triangular courtship and with his bride moved to Kannas City. Then came the World War. Curtis enlisted in the Canadian army and served in France, where, after the first battle of Mons he was reported "gassed and died in a hospital."

After a time, Peel, learning of his former sweetheart's widowhood, renewed his solicitations. September, 1915, they were married. In June, 1919, Curtis, who had been in a hospital, deliridus and unable to identify himself and with identification marks lost, came home. He found his wife and showed up in the midst of a seemingly happy married life.

Ether was asked to choose. She did, and Peel's request for a divorce was granted today.

A third letter more threatening than the others urged haste. Gor-don was trapped at the Dix street address.

STOCKTON, July 22.—Wheat and harley now being harvested, are making a fair average, except on the unirrigated west side hands, where the crop is a failure, due to absence of late spring rains.

The canneries in this county have just finished packing apricots, and report a light pack. The crop was smaller than last season. The canneries will now start on the peaches and tematoes. The peach crop is exceptionally large, but the tomato acreage is smaller than in 1918.

Melons are proving free from vine disease. The crop is large, but the acreage is below average.

The sugar beet crop is very light, but quality good. The Spreckels factory at Manteca is preparing to operate this season.

Potato harvest in the Delta is on. Acreage less than last year. Yield reported good, but prices dropped 50 per cent in last two weeks. Early onlons not worth digging, owing to present price. Immense crop.

Tokay and wine grape crop will be a record-breaker. Grapes are coloring well. Irrigation by wells saved the grape crop this year. More wells were sunk and pumping plants installed than ever before in the history of the vine-growing in this county.

Internal Trouble Always Used to Help at Front.

BY COL. HENRY J. REILLY.

[HY CARLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PARIS, July 29.—Having prevent ed British participation in the Pol-ish armistice, the Bolsheviki now signify their willingness to particle pate in a general peace conference. Acceptance means reconstruction.

From a military viewpoint, this inevitably impresses supporters everywhere with the Belshevik military strength. The willingness to make an armistice possibly is a ruse to gain time to regroup units, replace losses and reorganise long lines of communication in preparation for a new blow against the Poles, or perhaps they are willing to have a Polish armistice in order to strike in South Europe or Central Asia.

INTERNAL STRIFE HELPS

INTERNAL STRIFE HELPS.
Ordinary methods of making a military estimate of the situation are difficult, because all Bolshevik military plans are based on a combination attacking army, coupled with revolution or serious disturbances in the rear of the people attacked. Destruction of Denikine and the offensive against the Poles, with German Communist outbreaks at the time of the Kapp outbreak, are good examples.

When they are unable to execute a revolution they count upon friendly political parties and groups preventing serious military effort against them.

VICTED IN 1906 OF POISON-ING MAN AT STOCKTON.

IBY A. P. DAY WIRE.1

SAN QUENTIN, July 29.—Mrs. Emma Le Doux, serving a life senience in San Quentin prison for the murder of A. McVickar, whose body was found in a trunk at Stockton in March, 1906, has been paroled and will be released in a day or two, it was announced today by Warden Johnston.

She entered San Quentin Feb. 2, 1910, and became eligible for parole after serving seven years.

The trunk containing McVickar's body was found at a railroad station in Stockton. When the police found the trunk had come from Mrs. Le Doux's room she said McVickar had committed suicide and through fear she packed the body in the trunk and ordered it shipped to Calaveras county.

On Aug. 7, 1906, she was sentenced by Judge Nutter to be hanged, but the execution was post-poned through technicalities, and nearly four years later Mrs. Le Doux asked for a new trial and pleaded guilty to having poisoned McVickar. She was then sentenced to life imprisonment.

The Russian churches have been subjected to the vilest indignities, according to Miss Dokoochief; cigarettes are stuck in the mouths of the images by the Bolsheviki and cattle are housed in the church buildings.

The synagogues, however, remain untouched, meeting with no damage, she told the Near East Relief.

EIGHT GIRLS SAVED, LEAP INTO BLANKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—Narrow escapes and spectacular scenes featured a big fire in the Philadelphia Blanket Factory at Third and Locust streets, this morning.

Eight girls, trapped on the third and fourth floors of the burning building, in which the fire started, leaped into blankets held by persons on the street below.

An unknown marine organized a squad of men who held the blanket as the workers hurled themselves through the air to safety.

SAN ANTONIO, July 29.—Former Senator Railey's lead over Pat M. Mer in the Democratic primary vote continues to center around the five thousand mark.

Balley has a total of 140,160 to Neff s 135,500 on returns from 126 are complete. Thomason and Looney, other gubernatorial candidates, are trailing.

Betturns show that two open shop legislators were slected from San Antonio, two from Dallas and four from Houston, while the Union Labor vote elected two from Beara, one from Dallas and one from Houston, Ft. Worth sent Union Labor men to the Legislature.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 20.—Fined MINNEAPOLIS, July 28.—Fined $50 and costs over the long distance telephone, with Judge Brady presiding at the Hibbing (Minn.) end, Andrew Tivola of Chain Lake, charged with having deer in his possession, paid the fine today by mailing a bank draft.

Tivola was one of a number of men arrested yesterday by kame wardens in raids near Orr and Cusson. Telephone calls are in for others. Wholesale arrests of game law violators followed the raid last night in the country surrounding Crane Lake Portage near Orr and Cusson.

SHOOTS HIS BROTHER.

While playing with a gun that he "Aidn't know was loaded." Benny Rararian. 9 years old, shot his haby bropher, Harry, aged 5, as the younger had lay on the sofa with their mother in their home at 418 Routh Gless street last night. The injured boy was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where it was learned that the bullet had entered through his right shoulder and penetrated his lung. He will probably die, the attending surgeons say. Detective-Sergeants King and Oaks investigated the case, but could not find Benny, as he had fled from home immediately after the shooting.

CHANGES HIS MIND?

Man Who Pleaded Guilty and Was Sentenced Would Reopen Case.

An unusual motion was filed in U. R. District Judge Trippet's court yesterder in behalf of E. H. Hall, who ten days ago was sentenced to eighteen months in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil Island on his plea of guilty to a violation of the Harrison narcotic law. It is stated in the bill that the ease had not been properly presented in behalf of Hall and that cered in behalf of Hall and that certain facts ought to come to the attention of the court. On the occasion of the hearing Hall appeared in his own behalf. It was shown that he was found in Venice and had been seen to throw away a supply of morphine when approached by the revenue officers. The stuff was recovered. Hall admitted that he had it in his possession, but asserted he had found it.

It is the first time in the history of the local Federal court that a motion has been presented to reopen a case after a plea of guilty has been interposed and judgment administered. Judge Trippet will hear the motion Monday afternoon.

DISMISS MURDER CHARGE. DISMISS MURDER CHARGE.

How To SERVE.

It was said that Villa was promised his life, but nothing else, if he surrendered to the national government. Villa never considered life of much value in anybody he harrie over it now. why should he haggle over it now! could serve his country better as a corpse than in any other capacity. If he would retire in a neat mahorany casket in some restful churchyard there would be thunders of applause.

EASY FINANCE. The promoters who are eager to trade near-oil stock for Liberty Bonds are still with us and manage to find a way to break almost every home. Most of them within the law and possibly some of offer investments that may prove re-erative, but in the main it may be said that any man who surrenders the bonds of his country for speculative investment needs a guardian. It is better to have cold feet than nervous prostration.

ON THE SCENT. O Government agents in Philadelphia dis-covered achatch of home brewing by the mere fragrance in the air as they passed the premises. We will develop a race of on agents with the scent of a blood nd who will go about with their beaks in the air to catch the faintest hint of the damnable hop or the perniclous mait. The noses will be trained to register all frac-tions above half of 1 per cent and at 11 per cent the sleuth will become as rigid as a GOLF AND THE PRESIDENCY.

Neither Senator Harding nor Gov. Cox has much time for his golf and they are inclined to complain thereat. There is no denying the fact that running for Presiden is going to cut in and interfere with a man's golf game. They should have understood that at the outset. Either that or they might have arranged to play thirty-six holes for the Presidency Instead of having an election. But even after election being President is going to disrupt one's gulf.

Parley Christensen's efforts on behalf of Eugene Debs are merely personal advertising. What would be do if Eugen were out of jail? Would be do a brot act with him over the kerosene circuit? Debe is running for President on the So-cialist ticket and will get the Votes that would otherwise go to the crazy-quilt party which Parley is supposed to lead. They give an exhibition of splitting their own vote. Between them they divide the spite vote of the country. How would it help Pariey to have Eugene wandering over the country spilling a throatful of words a: every corner instead of peacefully resting in a cozy 6x9 cell? Why should Christen sen try to have Harding and Cox petition the President to pardon Eugene? IS VILLA DEAD OR ALIVE?

Francisco Villa, Mexicar, outlaw chief. with more lives than a cat and enough charges against him to justify a hundred hangings, is reported in dispatches from the border to have made terms with the Mexican government, disbanded his bandit army and retired on a Federal pension to private life. It is unfortunate that the writ-er of the dispatch was lacking in imaginaon; otherwise he would have told us that Villa had Mexico pretty well cleaned out and had reached the conclusion that there is more money in posing for the movies than in chasing Americans careless enough or reckless enough to wander across the Writing editorials about Villa is surrounded with some difficulties. He is officially dead. The Mexican government has so stated in a state paper; and the evi-dence, circumstantial and personal, submit-ted in support of that statement has been d by our own government at Wash Dead men generally stay under ground: or, if they insist on coming back, they only show themselves in the moon light. But Villa is reported to have apthe glaring light of the Mexican sun and bargained with representatives of the Mexican government for amnesty for himself and his men.

Such conduct is wretched form. It be comes embarrassing alike for our State and War departments. It is incumbent upon them to prove that this is not the original Villa, but a cheap counterfeit. Otherwise it might be necessary to send Gen. Pershing on another raid across the border. For the original Villa is accused of murdering American citizens on American soil; and the statute of limitations doesn't apply to such crimes.

If Villa couldn't resist the desire to return to the land of the living he ought to have been more discreet about it. He should have had more respect for the pro-prieties. It cost our government $100,000. 000 and the lives of about 100 men to secure proofs of his death, and it is most incon siderate for him to bob up now and disputthe evidence. The records of his demise are perfectly regular. His death certifi-cate is filed away in the government ar-chives at Washington. That ought to set-

The Mexican government ought to provide him with an iron mask or something. But, of course, the report of his reappearance isn't official. The correspondent who wrote about it was shamelessly lacking in the course of the state discretion. He simply provided another argument for government ownership of the telegraph and telephone lines. If the govrnment had been in control of the wires the name of the offender could have been the name of the offender could have been deleted by the censor; and if the narrative had been consigned to the mails the coun-terfeit Villa would probably have been dead before it would have been delivered. This is what comes of permitting correspond-ents to wire what they like and newspapers to publish it. We managed such things better while Burleson was in control of the telegraph lines.

Facts are disconce-ing when they ru contrary to the evidence. Perhaps an of-ficial denial from Washington will restore the country's mental equilibrium. We could then have recourse to the logic of the little girl who said, "It's so because mama said so. And when mama says 'tis so, 'tis so, even when it ain't so."

There is precedent for refusing to be-lieve that Villa has actually come back. Be-fore we accept the evidence we might have a joint investigation by the President and the Senate. If Villa had a hundred lives they would all be exhausted before those two could agree.

Villa is reported to have retired to civil villa is reported to have retired to civil life and to be located where the Mexican government can get its hands on him. Let the official investigation begin. Before it goes far Villa is likely to meet with an tion unnecessary. They have been known to ito things that way south of the Rio Grande. It is a method that recalls Hears Watterson's celebrated mot, "Lynching in never justifiable, but it is sometimes expedient." Villa is likely to furnish new evi dence of his death almost any day.

UDENDORFF'S WARNING.

While it is natural to view any statepicion, there is a ring of sincerity in the warning against Bolshevism that Gen. Lu-dendorff has uttered to stir into action not value the future of civilization

No doubt Gen. Ludendorff shares the bitter animosity of all the defeated German militarists against the Allies and is ready for any desperate coup by which to avenge that defeat. But he warns his peo against placing themselves in vassalage to the Russian soviets in the vain expectation of thus re-establishing German supremacy

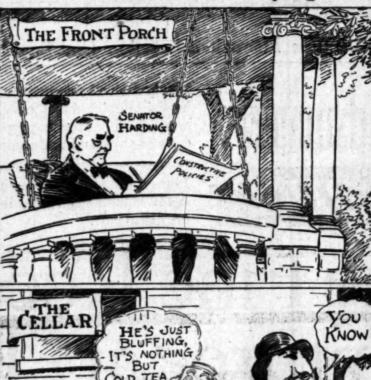

Bitter as it may be to the proud Prus sian, he is forced to admit that the world's hopes are now bound up in the successes of the once despised bourgeoisie, and between the proletariat and the shop-keeper he finds safety only in the latter. Gen. Ludendorff has no desire to see Pan-Germa-nia rise again from earth merely as a tail

Therefore, he has been at pains to po out to the bourgeoisie their chief source of weakness in their fight with the resolute anarchist dictators who are exploiting the Slav millions in the most desperate enterprise that the brain of a tyrant ever was pertinently:

"Let no one believe it [Bolshevism] wil The no one believe it [Bolshevism] will come to stand without enveloping Italy, France and England. No. Not even the seven seas can stop it. Then it will be too late and civilization will crumble. And the cause will be the obtuseness of governments and the lethargy of the bourgeoisie, as the latter likes to stay quietly at home on days of decisive events."

Have not too many of our own politicians been guilty of this bourgeoisie apathy while decisive world events have been menacin Europe and threatening, while we stayed quietly at home, to some day cross the seven seas? And the pity of it is that America's loyal co-operation with the other dem ocratic nations could have un-Franken the last three years has been developin with the monstrous precocity of a modern vance to exist. It was easy to foresec that the Bolshevist army would attack toward the middle of May and defeat the Polen. We must now figure on a Bolshevist ad-vance in Poland toward Berlin and Prague. The moment will come when Bolshevist armies will menace Germany and Czecho-Slovakia. Lenine has also advanced his lines to the frontiers of China, Afghanistan and India and is now preparing to continue

Then, in spite of his animosity toward Britain, the general makes this succinct statement. "Their [Bolshevist] propaganda is stirring the masses of India. Through Asia Minor into Persia and Arabia it moves in the anti-Christian Pan-Islamic spirit. A conflict between the Bolshavists and England is not the only problem. The problem is a conflict between civilization and

Gen. Ludendorff has supplied another insistent reason for our taking our place in the League of Nations, and a League that shall be something more than a slumberous Hague tribunal—not because if we don't it will "break the heart of the world," but be cause if we do it will break the back of OMMODITY PRICES.

Commodity prices for many articles of necessity are lower today than they have been since before the war. The era of too high prices is on the wane. Whether beof the many technical reasons advanced by the trade or because the pay-chology of the situation has begun to work makes little difference. The main point is that shoes are cheaper; clothing is cheaper, women's apparel is cheaper; furniture some luxuries are cheaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Spendit and all the little spendits have taken their hands out of the pockets. They have stopped buying everything they want just because they happen to want it and have returned to an nte belium enthusiasm for bargains.

The average individual dearly loves a mal that we are buying something we nee a bit cheaper than we could buy it under other conditions. Dealers know this and they are keen to supply the demand. They are buying with careful regard to this re quirement. They, too, are bargain hunting and when they acquire an especially desirable lot of goods they are quick to pass along the advantage to their trade.

This is so now, but it hasn't been so for the past two years. It has not mattered, apparently, during this period whether as article was a bargain or not. Often enough rather than its cheapness. We Americans have been engaged in acquiring a spending jag. We spent because we had the mone and enjoyed the unique experience.

all jags, there has come the reaction. The result is a return of the bargain eale. Have you been reading the brimful advertising columns of The Times recent ly? Have you noticed the gradual change the spirit of the advertiser's dream Have you observed how he is again cater ing to the bargain-hunting instinct which manifests itself in most all of us? If you pathological symptom of returning sanity

Renewed trading is following a period of waiting, and the consumer is now care fully listing the winter's requirements and then visiting the fine Los Angeles empo riums in bargain quest. He no longe swaggers into a department store with a long list of "gimmes" which he carts away regardless of price. Now Pa and Ma Spendit sit down before the evening lamp; find out just what they have got to have: con rounds. There are signs that prices will be even lower, but they are sufficiently indicative even now to warrant beginning the stocking-up process. For instance, dealers in clothing are taking pains to advertise and display in windows how good values may be secured for little money rather than how much it is possible to pay. The same is true all along the line. Prices are actually and positively coming down. Not theoret ically, but actually. Praise be.

It has actually dawned upon our intelligence that a balloon can't always stay aloft. Confidence in high prices is shaken. We orbitant price for an article because some dealer needs the money. This found initial manifestation in a contraction of pur hasing. A lot of folks stopped buying. Cancellation of orders between retailers and jobber and between jobber and manu facturer followed. Naturally there was a roar, but Mr. and Mrs. Spendit sat pat while the folks who had been garnering big profits said their say. Then a new level was established. The retailers began to to buy new stock on this lower level. They high-priced stuff on hand if they could

Of course, the immediate effect was to throw production somewhat out of joint. A lqt of overpaid hands even lost their jobs. its delened to look at something healder ters to postpone purchases of luxuries

A widely-read trade review said the other day that an effective stop had been put on the upward trend. At the same time St. Louis shoe manufacturers announce a cut of from 50 cents to $2 per pair for shoes, and a clothing manufacturer declared his belief that a 20 per cent cut is coming. This sounds good.

The Times is sorry that it cannot say as much for the food market. Foodstuffs re-main high. The market in some particulars seems to be in the hands of skillful. manipulators too foxy to be caught by thet law and too grasping to be satisfied with reasonable profits.

At the same time the law of self-determination is at work. Beyond a certain point it will not be safe to go, even when dealing in the necessities of life, and that absorption point is almost reached. With a land filled with berries and fruit it is becoming increasingly difficult to get the Spendits to appreciate the joke when they are required to pay famine prices for a peach or a fig. The wheat crop is in fine shape, and the labor shortage on the farm is diminishing.

Just as The Times predicted the fall in commodities a long time before it manifested itself, so we now predict a declin in food prices. It may not come for several weeks or months, but the leaven is working. The worst is over and from now or it will cost less to live and move and have our being.

The bath is the sign and substance civilization. The clean are conscious of superiority. Physical dirt endured too long encourages mental dirt. The morale of the stanchest patriot will break if he is kept too long from his tub. A nation may be judged by its per capita consumption of soap, and the dearth of soap played no small part in the breaking of the military ma-chine that was Germany.

The hot bath that flourishes among us on Saturday nights and leaves the nation with that peaceful, plous feeling on Sunday morn-ings is an institution distinctly American. In no other portion of the known world do five score million humans set aside busines and pleasure, lock themselves in their homes and indulge in this rite with soap and brush at the close of the week's activi-ties.—{Robert Quillen in Saturday Evening

Well-grounded Aristocracy.

Speaking of "dirt farmers," have you seen hose pictures in the newspapers of Calvin Coolidge sawing wood, milking cows and mowing grass on his father's farm in Vermont? Franklin Roosevelt may be hard put to produce similarly catching demonstra-tions that his aristocracy comes from the QUAKES AND TORNADOES.

Down in Los Angeles there have been seismic disturbances that sent unacclimated and nervous people scampering down from upper stories and reports thereof have figured in big headlines in noon and other editions of the papers of Seattle and other cities. The people of Los An geles and San Francisco are rather ensitive on this matter, and it is only fair to submit some facts which are offered by the San Francisc Chronicle as a comparison of th mportance and quality of rude manifestations of the forces of nature in the California cities and else where. The casualties in the most recent tremor in Los Angeles, the San Francisco paper asserts, wera "the cutting of the finger of Mra. Ryan by a piece of glass in a department store and the spraining of an ankie of Mrs. Finks, who failed to watch her step in descending a stairway." After gazing upon these injuries as the most serious in the Los Angeles jolt, says the paper, kindly turn your eyes upon the devastation wrought by a tornado in Nebraska. This is a pertinent rejoinder. And just to show a nice, neighborly spirit it is here mentioned that an unruly windstorm and cloudburst destroyed buildings and crops worth a hig sum in Eastern Washington a few days ago. Then, over in Idaho, hail, which always is "as large as hens' eggs." recent tremor in Los Angeles, the Then, over in Idaho, hall, which al-ways is "as large as hens' eggs," but unfortunately cannot be used as a substitute for that expensive food, smashed fruit and other crops into the ground and left the people to bear a loss of more than $150,000. "Since 1906 the city, at the cost of over $5,000,000, has provided it-self with a high-pressure system, the use of which will render impos-sible a repetition of the former shortage of water. It draws its supply from the bay, and repeated tests establish that no fire can gain head-way hereafter. San Francisco feels more secure on that score than any cher city in the country, and its new construction is of a character that reduces danger to a minimum. Los Angeles, being situated remote from an inexhaustible salt-water from an inexhaustible sait-water supply, and drawing its fresh water from a region in which faults oc-cur, will be put to more trouble in guarding against contingencies, but her enterprise will overcome them. There is no obstacle other than cost to bringing sait water from the to bringing salt water from the ocean, which is only twenty miles distant from the populous portion of its great area. But there is no of its great area. But there is no precaution that can be interposed to prevent the ravages of tornadoes, cycloses and blizzards. BY ALMA WHITAKER

W. L. George, author, the gentleman who has specialized as an au thority on women, is booked for lec tures in the United States and will be heard at the Ebell Club of this city. Courageous man! Many of the sex yearn to get a good look at him. You see, he has written a series of treatles on our intellectsand we rather gather that he holds them in a certain amused contempt In the course of his work he man every walk of life, and particularly in the intellectual aristocracy—and that they have admitted him to much confidential (atrictly intellectual) intimacy. He details conversations and arguments with them, in which his own remarks were replets with brilliant logic against which the ladies floundered, and finally took to stubborn assertion, rather than clear, concise, practical elucidation. He quite frankly laid traps for them and grinned delightedly when they fell in.

Mr. George has also written numerous novels in which he depicts the female mind and emotions, usually out of plumb. It was in "The Second Blooming." I think, that he stood as an authority on the emetional spasms of the women of 40, the dangerous age, when he implies that much must be forgiven to us because we can't help it, poor things. You might suppose that the reckless man would be a shade unpopular with the ladies, we being hypersensitive, self-centered and lacking in humor. But, ch, dear, no. Most every woman with half an intellect reads W. L. George; and all the literary sections of the clubs payhim the compilment of review and study. He won't have the slightest difficulty in getting lecture dates at the clubs; on the contrary, they are already competing for his personal enlightenment on many subjects. He should be grateful that women are women, as it were, since they obviously prove a remunerative channel for his abilities.

Although he writes so much about women and is markedly less inchannel for his abilities.

Although he writes so much about women and is markedly less informed on his own sex, he is essentially a man's author—writing chiefly for the enlightenment of the male of the species upon a vexed and problematical subject. Perhaps that is the secret of his interest for the women. Ah, but he must be a good deal of a "ladles" man," however, in an intellectual-vanity piquing sort of way. He at least knows this much about us, that subtly velled insults whet our interest.

Bernard Shaw, who also implies vast and superior knowledge of our sex, can always count upon a full bouse for lectures at dizzy prices per seat—and he specializes in insuiting his audiences. W. L. George is said to be a bit more subtle about it, but agreeably insuiting, just the same.

it, but agreeably insulting, just the same.

I am afraid we do rather like being insulted, if it is done with finesse. You see, the average mediocre make, particularly of theipolitician ilk, does rather make a business of smothering us in compliments, fatuous, obvious compliments that we should have to be twice as feolish as we are to swallow. We stir uneasily under them—for exaggrated praise is really the cheapest form of insult and struggle between derision of ourselves and contempt for the speaker. If he is sincere he is a fool. Otherwise he is merely a liar. Wherefore it is rather refreshing to listen to a frank insult, delivered with subtle, gentlemanly courtery.

When you come to think, it is always possible to insult women with impunity, if it is done in the guise of humor or intellectual discourse. The vaudeville stage relies entirely upon this form of wit for most of its patter acts. It is not possible to go to a vaudeville performance without hearing at least half a dozen gibes against women. And in more intellectual departments of life the same holds good in a different form. This can accommanly courtesy. in a different form. This can scarce-ly be evidence of our humility and servility, so it must be a sign of our large-minded tolerance, our humor-

"I tell you it's grand to be able to alt down to the table and eat heartily of a good meal and have no year that it will cause you to suffer afterwards." said Mrs. Hildegard Hamilton, of 19 Layton St., San Rafael, Cal., in telling of her experience with Tanlac recently.

"Why, for years before I got Tanlac I suffered intensely with rheumattism, asthma and stomach trouble. My stomach was in such a disordered condition I dared not touch anything acid, and, in fact, there were very few things I could eat, and my appetite failed so nothing tasted right to me. The little I did manage to eat caused me to suffer agonles. The gas from my stomach choked up my chest and throat and kept me wheezing and coughing all the time and it was hard for me to get my breath. Any little exposure would cause me to take cold, and that always made these symptoms warse. The rheumatic pains in my hands were almost unbearable, sind my fingers were so stiff I could searcely pick up anything. At night I was so nervous and racked with pain I hardly averaged two hours sleep in a night and I always wofe up in the morning feeling all tired out.

"I jook a great deal of medicina without getting any relief until I spriled any relief until I spriled and their morning feeling all tired out.

"I fook a great deal of medicina without getting any relief until I finally determined to give Tanlac a trial, as I had heard so much about if, and it has done me a world of good. Why, I have been built up until I can eat just anything I want and never have a touch of indigestion. I can breaths freely, for not take cold so dasily, and am not troubled with disagreeable coughs like I was. I have free use of my hand and my nerves are so much steadler I sleep like a child and wake up in the morning feeling fine; in fact, I feel stronger and better in every way. Tanlac is certainly a splendid medicine, and my husband is every bit as enthusiastic in praise of it as I am."

DEL MONTE, July 29.—Interest tournament was staged at Del in competitive tennis is going to be revived at Del Monte on August 6 to 8. An open tournament is scheduled to christen the two new concrete courts which were recently completed.

If years gone by the Pacific Coast and California State championships were decided on the Del Monte courts. A slump in tennis interest was experienced and it has been noticed this year, however, that a large number of enthusiasts are taking up the game. There are five courts at Del Monte and it is a rare day when all of them are not in use.

With most of California's leading players abroad and in the East engaging in competitions it is not like that any of them will compete in the August tournament. The prospects, however, are for a good entry several years since a representative and some good matches.

Low-Cost Mileage—in Goodyear Tires for Small Cars

There is no economy in buying socalled bargains in tires offered at sensationally cheap prices when a well-made tire delivers mileage at a considerably lower rate of cost.

Add the time and trouble occasioned by frequent replacements and it is fully apparent why tire users, seeking real mileage economy, are not attracted to very cheaply priced tires.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3-, 30 x 31/2- and 31 x 4inch sizes, is based on the fact that they are built to deliver exceptional mileage at low cost and consistently do so.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires-for true Goodyear mileage, value, economy.

Incidentally, we wen this match by four up and three to play.

Seeley executed intentional slices three or four times today and got exceptional length, which was combined with almost uncannily perfect direction. That more or less bears out the opinion of Ted Ray that intentional slicing is at times not only justifiable, but even commendable.

KNOWS THE LINKS.

I assume that Seeley knows the shows its undustains and upon which fairway his rolling ball is to have its uphili climb and early halt, or its downhill sprint and long run.

It may be old-fashioned, but I have yet to be convinced that the intentionally-sliced or pulled drives either look well or are of ultimate gain. Slicing and hooking on drives from the tee and from the fairway are becoming so common in the play of some golfers that it is a part of every stroke. Consequently, one of these had great difficulty one of these had great difficulty in preventing himself from placing unnecessary and harnful amount of draw on his ball when it would be far better if he had never known that it was possible to strike a ball in any other way than solidiy. Brand's Winged Palace Makes Successful Trial Flight.

Christening of the Tioga Eagle at Venice Yesterday.

EAGLE GETS CHAMPAGNE.

Representing the highest development in aircraft, "Tioga Eagle," the giant plane just completed for L. C. Brand of this city, swooped into the air for the first time from the Venice field yesterday, and soared and dipped as smoothly as the great bird for which it was christened. At 11 o'clock Miss Mary Margaret O'Keef, house-tweet of Mr. and Mrs. Brand, broke a bottle of champagne against the great mahogany side of the machine, and immediately after G. G. Budwig, who few the aerial mail service for some time, touched the electric starter of the machine and steered it over the course of the trail flight, which it covered with complets success.

"A winged palace" was what the watchers at the trial flight, called the huge car, which is built entirely of mahogany and nickle plate. It is lined with Sterling silver. A cellarette and lunchbox are built in payment of $10. tomorrow and the program promises something doing every minute

EDITORIAL

The Last-Day-of-the-Month Sale this month reaches such

To publish the prices and descriptions of the hundreds of items is out of the question in limited space.

Moreover and more important still, hundreds of articles, of which there are only a few pieces of a kind, are not even mentioned in our announcements because the quantities are limited. They will be found upon counters and tables throughout the store. These are among the most unusual offerings in point of price reductions.

Many things are Half Price. Many are Less Than Half. Still others are about or Nearly Half.

Sales will be going on in nearly all departments all day long and it is safe to say that more goods and more unusual offerings will be presented than in any past Last-Day-of-the-Month Sale.

Always a great sale, it will be greater than ever this month.

matically ease, and what is there to do about it?

FAIR PRICES.

In the Los Angeles back country thousands of acres are devoted to the raising of fine vegetables, but does anyone for a moment think that it costs 5 cents an ear to get corn into the hands of the consumer. Is it possible that 15 cents is a proper price to pay for a pound of peaches, which means about a peach and a half? Are strawberries, in midseason at 20 and 25 cents a box, held at a fair price? That figures about 1. cent per, herry. Do potatoes at 6 and 7 cents per pound represent a reasonable return? Radishes, onlons, beets and other seasonable food commodities are offered at prices, which would have been considered exorbitant in the winter not long ago.

The white farmer is a babe in the widerness. He is at the mercy been considered exorbitant in the winter not long ago.

The white farmer is a babe in the wilderness. He is at the mercy of the go-between. He has no effective way of reaching the consumer or even the retailer, who does not appear to be the real offender in the present instance. Out of the mess these facts predominate There is plenty of food being raised to supply Los Angeles and vicinity at prices materially lower than those being paid by the consumer. The farmer is discouraged and in many instances is abandoning his acreage or devoting the land to other and less perishable crops. The Japanese control of many commodities is absolute and apparently beyond the ordinary channels of control. The system of handling and distribution is somewhat seriously at fault, and if is here that the seat of the trouble seems te lurk. Fixing prices is like an attempt to cut down a tree, by snipping away at its branches. The ax should be laid at the root. We are paying too much for our food.

the increase which averages about the produce of a ten or twenty-acre

Transportation difficulties and car shortages have been many and annoying when related to loshdistance shipments, but these facts need not be taken into consideration when discussing local market prices, for they rather tend to bring these down instead of send them up. No produce raised within the Los Angeles district is shipped in freight cars to the hird market, and no one has heard of any serious breaking down of the motor truck service. It may cost

This brings us to the third count in the indictment—commission, and it is upon the ains of commission rather than omission that the trouble seems to lie.

Substantial gains were also made by steels, United States steel making net advance of 1% points after further early heaviness.

Oils, motors, woolens and textiles, rallied with such ease as to cause urgent short covering.

Trading in bonds was less active, but the tone was stronger, especially for Liberty issues, and several of the international group. Total sales (par value) aggregated $9,175,600. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call. example, falling to the lowest quo-tation since last March.
Stocks derived much of their sup-port from the optimistic statement of Gov. Harding of the Federal Re-serve Board regarding credit condi-

NASHVILLE, July 29.—George

police, that he sent poisoned candy to his wife, an inmate of the Tennessee Hospital for the Insane, which resulted in the death last week of Mrs. Littrual end two hospital attendants.

NEAR PRUSSIA. Lithuanians Join Bolshevik

Forces for Big Drive. Exhaustion of Men and Horses Holds Up Advance.

Polish Officers Desert While Farmers Stand.

BY HENRY WALES.

(ST CARLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPARCE)
PARIS, July 29.—A corps of Lithuanian troops from Vilna and Kovao have joined Bolshevik cavalry operating eastward through Suwalki and Augustowo and are walki, pending the armistice and peace negotiations.

MEET NO OPPOSITION.

The Red army is advancing swiftly in the northern sectors, meeting no opposition from the Poles.

The Red advance is delayed only by the fact the Bolshevik troops have been racing ahead so fast they outstripped their supplies like Von Kluck coming from Belgium into France in 1914.

Tougachewski's lack of fresh remounts for the Russian cavalry is the sole factor saving Poland from a tremendous disaster, as a French commandant just returned from the Pinsk front told me the Reds could ride right to Warsaw if horse flesh could stand up and forage could be obtained.

Polish officers are deserting wholesale, it is said, and the only units holding are small machine-gun groups comprised of men whose homes and farms are located in the sectors where they are fighting and who seek to stem the invaders' rush.

BIALYSTOK (Polish Prontier)

July 23.—The railroad yards here are clogged with trains. The Reds continued to advance to the north in spite of the move for a truce. The headquarters of the Polish general commanding the first army, operating in this sector, is located here in a combination train of freight and passenger cars.

The heat is intense. Some wounded lying on stretchers on the station platform have faces black with files. Polish girls are attending them. Wearled strangiers are reaching here with tired horses dropping beneath them.

a pure lottery lends itself to that a a pure lottery lends itself to that atmosphere.

The drawing for the 15 and 150 bonds was held in less austere surroundings at the office of the Controller of the Postoffice Savings Bank in West Kensington. The exciting ceremony took place in the presence of the controller and a representative of the National Debt office and a gentleman from the treasury, in a sedate apartment overlooking the typical greenery of a West Kensington lawn and on the walls a whole gallery of eminently severe-looking Victorians—past controllers, who mostly affected side whiskers—surveyed the proceedings grimly from their frames.

For the purposes of the lottery, huge cabinets like huge butter churns are provided, in which are contained thousands of metal discs, octagonal for the 150 bonds. These lottery churns are kept locked up and scaled.

Before the draw took place, the discs were churned up by turning the handles, after which operation—which somehow suggested a hurdy-gurdy that had gone wrong inside—the scals were removed and the locks undone. Then a charming specimen of the postoffice flapper, wholly unconscious of the eyes of history and the gaze of the sad gentlemen in the frames, blithely advanced and draw the winning numbers. Each disc represented twenty bonds of its particular value.

After the draw, the churns were scaled up again and doubless removed under escort to some strongroom. The controller was in quite a gay mood, befitting the sporting occasion. He pointed out that the last of the discs would not be drawn though drawings will take place each year until Anno Domini 1976, "when," as he joyously remarked, "we may not be here."—[London Correspondence Manchester Guardian.

MONEY CAUSE OF COLLEGE SPLIT?

Baer Tells Why Evans Quit as Occidental Chief.

Retiring President's Ready to Meet Any Attack.

mittee is Named to Look for His Successor.

Dr. Silias Evans's resignation as president of Occidental College was prompted by differences existing between himself and certain members of the board of trustees regarding the administrative and financial policies of the school. This brief explanation was conveyed in a statement issued yesterday afternoon by Dr. John Willis Baer, former president of the college and a member of the board.

From this statement it is conjectured by some that Dr. Evans held a view different than that of a few members of the board as to how school funds should be raised. Occidental College was, before the advent of Dr. Evans as its president endowed with bountiful sums raised through lively financial campaigns. Since Dr. Evans has been president, on financial drives have been launched.

"For some time there has not been no financial drives have been launched.

"For some time there has not been whole-hearted co-operation between the trustees and the president," said Dr. Baer. "The differences, whatever they are, have to do with the administrative and financial policies of the school. It seemed best both for Dr. Evans and the college that a change be made and Dr. Evans took the initiative. Regret is keen and sincere that the separation has to come but under the circumstances it was made in the best spirit and was unanimous.

"I don't want the Job; I already have enough trosbies."

His first appeintment as acting president came when Dr. Riaer took a year's wacation and went abroad. After Dr. Baer returned he was taken ill and Dean Burt was again made acting president, which position he held usfil Dr. Evans arrived in 1917.

A committee was appointed yesterday to look for a successor for Dr. Evans.

"No small job, I say," was Dr. Baer's remark.
